The National Day of Action against Bullying and Violence on March 21st saw close to one million students from more than 2,100 schools ‘taking a stand together’ across the country and Saint Martin of Tours helped to shape how bullying is addressed amongst Australia’s future generations by holding a ‘Purple Day.’ Highlights of our school’s event have been included in the newsletter. Thank you to the students, parents and teachers for playing a part in this important initiative.