Dear Parents,

Part of our literacy program at St. Martins involves the need for classroom helpers.

If you are new to the school or have not previously completed a literacy parent helpers course you are invited to attend a short information and training session...

On: Thursday 19th March

At: 9am or 6pm

In: the GECCO (school hall)

RSVP: Thursday 12th March

You only need to attend if you have not attended a Parent Helper session previously.

The course will give you a further insight into our Literacy structure and help you gain confidence in dealing with the children and understand the “how” and “why” of what we are doing in literacy.

Looking forward to see you there.
Jo Menta (P-2 Literacy Leader)

Please tear off this bottom slip and return to your child’s class.
