School Captains Lunch

On Monday 27th of July our School Captains Matisse and Lachlan, together with other School leaders in this area, attended a lunch with Parliamentarians, Bruce Atkinson, Mary Wooldridge and Richard Dalla-Riva.

This informal gathering was an opportunity to recognise the role of students as leaders and give them an opportunity to meet other students and talk about leadership with their local Members of Parliament.

After introducing themselves Matisse and Lachlan spoke proudly about Saint Martin of Tours, describing how caring and helpful everyone is towards others and how our school includes all students in activities and subjects, in particular sport. They also related how their role in leadership had provided them with diverse opportunities to improve not only their own skills but to also promote and encourage the whole school decision making. As leaders their skill development included listening to and acting on other students’ opinions and perspectives, and understanding the power all students have in being part of the decision making process.

I’m sure you will agree that our Captains here at Saint Martin of Tours are truly dedicated to their leadership roles, demonstrating strengths, values and beliefs in representing their fellow students.
