Book Week 2016

Our students, parents and staff never cease to amaze me with their creativity and it was a delight to see the many ingenious ways a multitude of book characters came to life on Top Yard on Friday morning. Thank you so much to everyone for embracing our Book Week Parade with such enthusiasm and joy!

Have fun looking at our Book Week photos on our LRC Blog.

Yeo-Low Medal for Reading

A BIG congratulations to the students who have completed our Yeo-Low Medal Reading Challenge for 2016. They have all read a variety of books by Australian authors and completed a creative response about one of these books including cakes, Anzac biscuits, poems, posters, sketches, models and book reviews. You are most welcome to come and see their creativity on display in the LRC.

Our author friend Adrian Beck is looking forward to drawing the winner of the Indigenous football and awarding our Yeo-low Medal to a deserving reader this Friday at Footy Day. Good luck everyone!

Miss Y and Pig the Pug on holiday

I will be on Long Service Leave for the first four weeks of Term 4 and Mrs Collier will be replacing me in the LRC. Stay tuned to the LRC Blog for photos of my travelling companion Pig the Pug as we visit Seattle, Vancouver, Toronto and New York. I’m especially looking forward to meeting fellow teacher librarian, Julie Hembree and visiting her library in Seattle. Julie and I have communicated via our library blogs and Twitter for almost five years.

Happy holidays!
